

KraneShares CSI China Internet UCITS ETF

KraneShares CSI China Internet UCITS ETF is a sub fund of KraneShares ICAV (the "ICAV"). The ICAV is authorised as a UCITS in Ireland and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.

Investors should read the Prospectus, Supplement and UK KIID and/or PRIIP KID prior to investing.

Investment Strategy:

KWEB is an index-tracking, passively managed, UCITS ETF that tracks the CSI Overseas China Internet Index, a free float market capitalization weighted index consisting of China based companies whose primary business or businesses are focused on internet and internet-related technology. These companies are publicly traded on either the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, NASDAQ Stock Market, or New York Stock Exchange.

KWEB Provides:

- Access to Chinese internet companies that provide similar services as Google, Facebook, Twitter, eBay, Amazon, etc.
- Exposure to companies benefiting from increasing domestic consumption by China's growing middle class
- Exposure to Chinese internet companies listed in both the United States and Hong Kong

China Internet Sector Highlights:

- Chinese retail web sales totaled $2 trillion¹ in 2022 (compared to $1 trillion² in the United States).
- China's internet population reached 1.05 billion people in 2022, a penetration rate of only 74%³. The U.S. internet population reached 311 million people, a penetration rate of 93% in 2022³.
- Total Chinese retail sales reached $6.4 trillion in 2022³
- Online shopping accounted for 31% of retail purchases in China in 2022³

Investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. There can be no assurance that a Fund will achieve its stated objectives. The Funds are subject to political, social or economic instability within China which may cause decline in value. Fluctuations in currency of foreign countries may have an adverse effect to domestic currency values. Emerging markets involve heightened risk related to the same factors as well as increase volatility and lower trading volume.

Narrowly focused investments typically exhibit higher volatility. Internet companies are subject to rapid changes in technology, worldwide competition, rapid obsolescence of products and services, loss of patent protections, evolving industry standards and frequent new product productions. Such changes may have an adverse impact on performance.
