

EU-regulated market: General Standard Tailor-made solution for equity financing

A listing in Frankfurt offers various options via Initial Public Offering (IPO), Listing (without capital increase), SPAC, direct Listing and dual listing to attract national and international investors. In the Regulated Market, companies can choose between Prime Standard and General Standard. Companies in General Standard must fulfill the minimum legal requirements of the EU-regulated market. General Standard is appropriate for medium-sized and large companies targeting national investors and seeking for a cost-effective listing.
